

CHISPA NUGGET

October 2018

Editor: Ron Rivera

MONTHLY MEETING WEDNESDAY OCTOBER 3RD DOORS OPEN AT 6:00PM

I will miss my second dinner in a row because I “have to be on a cruise” so I will miss this great meal. Your easiest way to remember to call in and make your reservation is to look at your calendar and look up the first Wednesday of the upcoming month. Just call in and make your reservation on Sunday and you will have called in a in a timely manner.

Come to the dinner and enjoy the steak prepared the way you like it. The chefs do a great job of cooking these New York steaks. I am hoping the new barbeque will be up and running by this time. Let’s try and have a nice crowd.

EXECUTIVE BOARD MEETING OCTOBER 17TH

This is the time of year that we discuss our plans for the coming year. I again missed the names of those in attendance at the last meeting but I know many of the officers were not present. These meetings are important so plan on attending this meeting. The meeting starts at 7:00PM. In October as like monthly meeting is on the 3rd Wednesday so please attend.

2 PANCAKE BREAKFASTS IN OCTOBER SATURDAY OCTOBER 6TH AND SUNDAY OCTOBER 21ST

As usual when Grape Stomp is held the first Saturday of October we have a special breakfast for this event. Because we have two breakfasts in October it is important that we have helpers for both of the days. I will be away on October 6th but I hope that many of our usual workers are available on that day. If you haven’t helped before come and find out how much fun it is. Our September 16h breakfast had 94 paid guests and 3 children. We had a nice group of helpers who included, Tim Davis, Rocky Chick, Kevin Von Aspern, Cliff Von Aspern, Bert Abreo, Dan Young, Jim Arhontes, Ron Rivera and Louis Clark. Louis pointed out to me that he helped at the last breakfast and wasn’t mentioned in the September newsletter so I am adding this note thanking him for both days he helped. The morning started slowly but once it got going we had a steady stream of people.

As usual many of the people came back to the kitchen window and complimented the chefs for their great breakfast. That alone makes it worthwhile helping. As I usually do as the crowd winds down I pay for my breakfast and enjoy the meal as much as the other guests. Make a note you have available two dates to attend the breakfast.

SEPTEMBER SOCIAL MEXICAN DINNER SEPTEMBER 21ST

Since I am not attending the meal and also because I am publishing this newsletter before the dinner as you would expect I have no details on what happened.

When I last checked the signup sheet we had very few signed up but I am hoping that when I get back and get the details I will find that the number of people signed up increased. I will put a small article in the November newsletter about the dinner.

PRIME RIB SOCIAL OCTOBER 19TH

Our next member guest social will be a special one with the main course featuring prime rib. Of course this fine meal costs more so we are going to have to charge $20 for this meal. I don’t think that will keep anyone away since at that price you get a meal that can’t be beaten anywhere at that price. In addition you will be able to socialize with your friends and neighbors. It’s important to call in by October 17th so we can order enough meat. For this meal if you haven’t called in by the deadline you won’t be admitted if we don’t have enough prime rib. So call in your reservation and if you can’t make it please cancel.

The prime rib will be accompanied by potatoes, some vegetable that our chefs will make and a fine green salad with plenty of dressing. I believe that the prime rib will be sliced to the size that fits your appetite. I am going to ask that some of you come early that day to help set up the hall. If we get the kind of crowd I am hoping for we can use the extra help during setup. The setup usually starts just about 4:00 PM. I hope many of you invite your friends and neighbors to this great event. I hope to see many of you there.

STATEHOOD DAY IN COLUMBIA

We had a good turnout in Columbia on September 8th for the statehood parade. They carried the flag and were well received by the crowd. It is a great event that I of course missed because I was out of town. Here are the names of those who carried the flag, Bill Schwoerer, Bert Abreo, Rocky Chick, Bowen Chick, Bob Loeffler, Tom Kingshill, Jerry Nelson, Kevin Von Aspern, and last but not least Glenn Berry. Thanks to all you guys for representing Chispa parlor in the parade.

ANGELS CAMP MUSEUM LECTURE OCTOBER 14TH

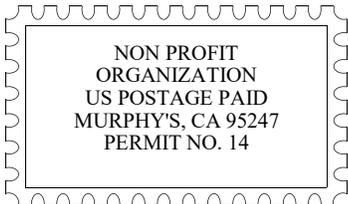

The Angels Camp Museum is having an exciting lecture conducted by Lee Stetson. Lee Stetson does a live enactment of John Muir in Yosemite National Park. This is going to be a can’t miss lecture at the museum in Angels Camp. When the lecture begins he is Lee Stetson and from what I have heard by the end of the lecture you are thinking that you are listening to John Muir in person. He has performed this presentation all over the United states and the world. I know that I won’t miss this exciting event.

The lecture starts at 2:00 PM in the Carriage House at the museum. The museum is located at 753 South Main St, Angels Camp, CA. Museum members are free and non-members pay $10. I hope to see you there.

MARK TWAIN WILD WEST FEST
 SATURDAY OCTOBER 20TH

The Wild West Fest in Angels Camp is from 10 AM to 5 PM on Main Street in historic downtown Angels Camp. It promises to be a living interpretation and celebration of the 19th Century Wild West Gold Rush-era. There will be three stages of non-stop music, comedy and entertainment, roving street performers, magicians, jugglers, musicians and dance hall girls; beer, wine and food. There will be over 80 vendors of all descriptions including arts and crafts, and local goods. ADMISSION AND PARKING ARE FREE ALL DAY.

Editors note: I found out at the pancake breakfast that Cliff Von Aspern's wife Annette was having trouble breathing and is on oxygen. She is currently in a convalescent hospital so I want all of us to keep a good

Editor's Note: Our shiny new barbeque is now in the hall. At the time of writing this newsletter it still had not been completely put together. I'm not sure who will finish putting it together. We will discuss this at our board meeting on October 19th.

SEPTEMBER MEMBER DINNER

We are averaging 45 per dinner but in September we had 40. I am sure the dinner was well worth the price, especially for those who won a little in the raffle. Here are the 5 winners.
